

The Role: Graduate Planner

We are seeking a self-motivated, confident, reliable, and well-organised Graduate Planner, to join our planning team.

Topland New Zealand is recruiting a motivated graduate planner to work in our team on a broad range of projects regional wide.

A real opportunity to play a key role in shaping the places around us. You could be considering everything from an application for a house extension to an apartment complex or major brownfield development / subdivision

The Organisation:

Topland is a boutique community focused consultancy and has been going strong since 2009. We have grown to over the last few years and specialise in providing planning, project management and investment advisory services to a wide range of public and private sector clients throughout Auckland. The culture in the workplace is one that is fun, fast paced and solution focused. We have many talented individuals in the team, we are passionate about what we do and aim to foster well rounded property professionals.

What we are looking for:

- A planning degree recognised by the New Zealand Planning Institute
- An understanding of the Resource Management Act
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- The ability to work unsupervised in a collegial environment.
- Good communication skills and great at building relationships.
- Commitment to providing the best outcomes for your clients.
- An aspiration to learn and professionally develop in the field of Resource Management Planning
- Alignment to our core values.
- NZ Full driving License,

Benefits include:

- Remuneration will be discussed with the ideal candidate and will be reflective of qualifications, experience, and ability.
- Continued professional development and career advancement through.
- exposure to a wide range of challenging projects.
- A culture that is based on strong core values that supports the empowerment of our employees.
- Competitive remuneration plus benefits package.
- Our Benefits Include Payment of professional fees and CPD, Mobile phones and flexible working hours.